

RULES FOR LEASEHOLDERS
MARTHA'S VINEYARD CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

1. The MVCMA recognizes two classes of leaseholders:

1.1. Equity Leaseholder: An equity leaseholder is (I) an individual who possesses an ownership interest (full or partial) in a cottage situated on the grounds of the MVCMA and who has been approved by the MVCMA as a leaseholder of the lot underlying the cottage, (II) a trustee (who is an individual) of a trust or a beneficiary (who is an adult individual) of a trust that possesses an ownership interest (full or partial) in a cottage situated on the grounds of the MVCMA and who has been approved by the MVCMA as a leaseholder of the lot underlying the cottage, or (III) an individual who is a manager, officer or director of a legal entity that possesses an ownership interest (full or partial) in a cottage situated on the grounds of the MVCMA and who has been approved by the MVCMA as a leaseholder of the lot underlying the cottage.

1.2. Non-equity Leaseholder: A non-equity leaseholder is a family member who does not possess an ownership interest in a cottage situated on the grounds of the MVCMA, or a family relation that is a beneficiary of an interest in the cottage under a valid will; and has been approved as a leaseholder of a lot, with the consent of all the equity leaseholders of that lot, by the MVCMA. The majority of equity leaseholders can revoke that consent at the end of the current lease.

2. All individuals, trusts and legal entities with an ownership interest in a cottage must be approved leaseholders of the lot on which the cottage is situated.

To qualify as a leaseholder, equity or non-equity, an individual must submit an application and letters of reference and be interviewed and approved by the MVCMA Committee on Residential Lease, as must the trustee of a trust or person managing the affairs of a legal entity seeking to qualify as a leaseholder. Adult beneficiaries also must submit an application and letters of reference and be interviewed and approved. Changes in ownership or management of a trust or legal entity also require submission of an application, letters of reference, an interview, and approval. (see Cottage Ownership Transfer Rules 1 – 6).

4. All leaseholders, equity and non-equity, are individually and jointly responsible for all fees, assessments and fines levied on the leasehold.

5. All leaseholders, equity and non-equity, are individually responsible for insuring that cottage occupants adhere to all MVCMA rules.

6. No cottage may be occupied without a valid lease, signed annually by all individual leaseholders, equity and non-equity, or the trustee or manager, and the MVCMA.
